

GET TO KNOW: MEET SUBHASH

The second in our Get To Know series introduces Subhash, our Trustee Secretary, and in this interview, you'll find out why the arts hold such a special place in his heart.

I'm a lover of theatre - and although my day-job is very different, it is my desire as an artist to be part of a vibrant, active organisation. So, when I saw Total Insight's advertisement for a trustee, I applied.

What struck me the most was their focus to bring theatre education to the underserved market, to children and young people who are in some way disadvantaged.

I grew up in a remote part of India, in a time where there was no internet, no WhatsApp or social media. From an early age, I was part of drama clubs - and it was there I learnt the magic of theatre. I learned how to express myself, and to speak like I am right now. Who I am today is because of the theatre exposure I had in my formative years.

It brings me great joy seeing Total Insight Theatre making that same opportunity a reality for children right now. They are bringing that dream to children and young people who don't have the means to visit the West End, and those children are now learning through the power of the theatre.

Theatre is not just a performance - it is a way for children and young people to develop their skills in communication; to understand their emotions, and learn how to articulate and express themselves - and they can achieve all these magical things simply by watching artists on stage.

Working with Total Insight is a phenomenal opportunity and one I truly hold dear.

We hope you're enjoying this series so far, and are looking forward to who you'll meet in our next instalment. In the meantime, to see how you can support Total Insight Theatre, follow the link to find out what you can do to ensure the arts remain open and accessible to all.
